

INSTITUTE FOR COMMUNITY INCLUSION PRESENTS:

SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS AND EMPLOYMENT RIGHTS: A TRAINING FOR PROVIDERS

TRAINERS: LINDA LANDRY & TOM MURPHY, DISABILITY LAW CENTER

Confused about Social Security benefits and work incentives? Need information about the rights of people who are applying for jobs or requesting reasonable job accommodations? Take this opportunity to get the facts on basic Social Security information, financial eligibility, work incentives and employment rights from Disability Law Center attorneys.

What you will learn:

- The basics of SSI and SSDI eligibility rules- when does eligibility begin and end?
- SSI and SSDI work incentive rules- what happens when recipients work?
- Recipient and representative payee responsibilities.
- How to avoid benefit overpayments and what to do when they happen.
- Whether and when to disclose disability when applying for a job.
- How to request a reasonable accommodation

Schedule:

9:30 - 10:00	Registration and continental breakfast
10:00 - Noon	SSI, SSDI and work
Noon - 12:45	Lunch
12:45 - 2:45	Employment issues (disclosure, accommodations)
2:45 - 3:00	Wrap up

This training is offered FREE OF CHARGE. Please note that it is ICI's policy to charge agencies $30.00 per person per day for staff who register for but do not attend a free training. This fee will be waived if ICI is notified, at least three business days before the training date, that the participant will not attend.
